INTERVIEW QUESTIONS:

1. What is your favorite activity to do with friends?

Definitely Dungeons and Dragons. I have two campaigns I participate in, and they are both with friends I do not get to see as often. It is something I look forward to.

2. What do you feel has been positive since graduating college?

The opportunities I have had the privilege of undertaking. The Marvel films were hard work but seeing the end results and my name on the credits made it worth it.

3. Do you regret leaving Atlanta?

Not at all. My fiancée and family are here in Indiana. I eventually wanted to move home regardless and the work conditions I was exposed to pushed me further to this goal.

4. In retrospect, how was the overall environment working on Marvel films?

Not the best. The film industry is not as grand as most people think it is. Harsh work conditions, benefits, and pay are not the painting you would hope it is. I enjoyed film making but the industry is just not good to the people working in it.

5. Do you have any community events you participate in?

I currently assist at my fiancée's elementary school. They have a pokemon club after school and I help the kids learn how to play so they have a fun after school activity to look forward to.

6. How do you like being back in Indiana?

Immensely. I see so many people I missed in my time in Atlanta. Even if the work is different here, the fact I can see those I love outweighs it 10-fold.

7. Do you have weekly activities you enjoy doing?

Every other Friday I go to a card shop with friends to play Pokemon. It's a great time because there's a taco truck outside the shop we love eating at while we play.

8. Could you imagine doing the things you have accomplished in high school?

Honestly no. I aspired to do what I did but I did not think I would jump that fast to film making right out of college.

9. Where do you see yourself in the future?

I am thinking about going into web design and working a tech job. I'm taking a couple certification classes to get me started.

10. Are you looking forward to getting married?

Absolutely. We're going to Vegas for our wedding and plan to live up the week!
